

Maximize your Reimbursement Recovery

Pattern Reimbursements simplifies claims filing and gets you more of what you're owed for lost, damaged, or returned inventory, all at an unbeatable cost. No need for you to gather documentation, manually file claims, or monitor reimbursement status.

As part of our Marketplace Prep and Middle Mile solutions, Pattern Reimbursements draws upon our years of Amazon expertise and uses proprietary technology to streamline the entire reimbursement process.

Partner with the experts

As the #1 Amazon shipper, we've perfected the process of managing Amazon reimbursements, and are equipped to keep up with changing requirements.

Hands-off reimbursements

We handle the entire end-to-end process for you, following all Amazon requirements and policies. We file all cases automatically and use your information from Amazon Seller Central to gather bills of lading, proof of delivery, and pack slips for you, so there's no need for you to gather information.

Save on commission fees

Our internal efficiencies and integrations allow us to offer you low commission fees, so you get to keep more of your reimbursement dollars.

Visibility into claim status

See what's happening with reports on reimbursement status and key metrics. We leverage Amazon's automated reimbursement solutions so that you never pay for a reimbursement that would have been given to you automatically.
